12. Governing Law, Compliance with Law and Dispute Resolution:

- 12.1 This Purchase Order shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws applicable in the Emirate of Dubai and the Federal laws of UAE.
- 12.2 Notwithstanding anything in this Terms and Conditions to the contrary, the Supplier shall comply with all applicable laws and Authorities regulations. The Supplier is not authorized or otherwise expected to take any action in the name of or otherwise on behalf of the Company which would violate applicable laws and Authorities regulations.
- 12.3 All disputes arising out of this Purchase Order shall be resolved amicably by the Parties. If the Parties have been unable to resolve any dispute amicably, then the dispute shall be referred to and finally resolved by Arbitration in accordance with the Dubai International Arbitration Centre Rules of Arbitration.

13. Independent Contractor:

The Supplier is an independent contractor and not the agent or employee of the Company. The Supplier's obligations under the Purchase Order shall be performed under the supervision and control of the Supplier, and the Company shall have no obligation to supervise the Supplier's employees, representatives or subcontractors. The Supplier shall have no authority to make statements, representations or commitments of any kind or take any other action binding on the Company in any case.

14. Termination

Without prejudice to the right of the Company in compensation;

- 14.1 The Company has the right to terminate this Purchase Order, at any time and for any reason, by giving written notice to the Supplier. After such notice has been given, the Supplier shall not order further goods or services which relate to this Purchase Order, and it shall make reasonable efforts to cancel contracts already entered into where possible without cost being incurred.
- 14.2 If the Company exercises its right to terminate this Purchase Order, the Supplier is entitled to have its unrecoverable expenses covered in connection with its
